

Guide Dogs have big roles.

They have to learn some very smart skills to pass the strict criteria that is in place. Guide Dogs must learn to deliberately disobey their handler's command in the presence of obstacles and danger. They must also have exceptional concentration skills, avoiding tempting distractions that other dogs find irresistible - like chasing a ball - so they can stay on task.

Life
Without Limits